

Lecturer in Medical Sciences – School of Medicine & Dentistry – Grade H

Job Description

Purpose

To contribute to the academic development, course management, teaching, research development, and scholarship within the School in the area of Medical Sciences.

Duties

1. To design, deliver and evaluate teaching sessions within medical sciences across a range of courses within the School, including Year 1 and 2 MBBS and MPAS.
2. To contribute to assessment activities within the school including creation of assessment items, standard setting, invigilation, coursework marking etc.
3. To support outreach activities within the School, and to lead on a programme of support for the recruitment, retention, and attainment of students from diverse backgrounds e.g. widening participation students.
4. To make a contribution to achieving the academic objectives in the School through teaching, research, and income generating activities.
5. To act as a module leader for a number of identified modules.
6. To undertake administrative duties relevant to module leadership (administer course registers, assessment records, learning programmes and other records).
7. To engage with the recruitment of students onto courses and to provide appropriate advice on progression and career opportunities.
8. To adhere to quality assurance and enhancement systems to ensure high standards are maintained and the student experience is enhanced.
9. To contribute to the development of the School's commercial activities, including consultancy, training and funded projects.
10. To participate in research as an individual or part of a team.
11. To develop and consolidate contacts with industry/employers and other external organisations.
12. With regards to the nature of your role and its impact upon our students, make an active contribution to and support the improvement of the student experience.
13. To undertake any duties relevant to the School's activities and commensurate with the level of the post, as directed by the Head of School/designated Division Leader.

Person Specification

Knowledge, Skills, and Behaviours (Essential)

- Experience of teaching Medical Sciences (e.g., microbiology, immunology, cell biology) in a higher education environment (Application/Interview).
- Evidence of providing support or mentoring to students or trainees (Application/Interview).

- Good honours degree (or equivalent) in a relevant subject (Application).
- A relevant Masters qualification (Application).
- PhD in a relevant area (Application).
- Ability to teach and supervise dissertations up to Masters level (Application/Interview).
- Flexible and innovative approach to teaching and learning (Application/Interview).
- Ability to undertake research/knowledge transfer (Application/Interview).
- Ability to work on own initiative as well as part of a team (Application/Interview).
- IT literate - able to use standard Microsoft office packages (Application/Interview).
- An understanding of and demonstrable commitment to the University's Values of Achieving Together, Being Proud, Creating Opportunity and Supporting All, as a framework for decisions, actions, and behaviours (Application/Interview).

Knowledge, Skills, and Behaviours (Desirable)

- Experience of outreach/student activities for diverse student populations (Application/Interview).
- Experience of teaching undergraduate medical or other healthcare students (Application/Interview).
- Understanding of external professional body regulation (Application/Interview).
- Publications, conference presentation (Application/Interview).
- Teaching qualification such as certificate in HE, or Fellow of the Higher Education Academy, or willingness to undertake (Application).
- An ability to contribute to commercial activities and income generation (Application).
- An ability to contribute to the enhancement of research within the School (Application/Interview).
- Knowledge of UK current Medical Sciences education and practice (Application/Interview).