

Senior Lecturer in Law - School of Law and Policing - Grade I

Job Description

Purpose

To contribute to, and lead in, the areas of course delivery, course management and course development in the area of Law at the University of Central Lancashire. To undertake research and knowledge transfer through scholarly activities. To undertake specific course leader responsibilities in related programmes, as appropriate.

Duties

1. Lecturing at all levels of the academic programmes in the School including Masters programmes.
2. To engage in course developments in the area of Law.
3. Make a major contribution to achieving the academic objectives of the Subject Group of Law and the School through scholarly activity, research outputs and knowledge transfer activities.
4. As a Senior Lecturer, undertake significant administrative, course development and course leadership responsibilities. Act as a module tutor for a number of identified modules. Administer course registers, assessment records, learning programme and other records.
5. Engage with the recruitment of students onto courses and provide appropriate advice on progression and career opportunities.
6. Develop and consolidate contacts with relevant external organisations.
7. Adhere to quality assurance and enhancement systems to ensure high standards are maintained and student experience is enhanced.
8. Attend local and national events on behalf of the University, in order to promote the University and its courses, and to enhance the profile of the division, school and University as a whole.
9. With regards to the nature of your role and its impact upon our students, make an active contribution to and support the improvement of the student experience.
10. To undertake any duties relevant to the School's activities and commensurate with the level of the post, as directed by the Dean of School.

Person Specification

Knowledge, Skills, and Behaviours (Essential)

- Experience of teaching in Higher Education or relevant substantial professional experience of working in legal practice (Application/Interview).
- Good honours degree (or equivalent) in Law (Application).
- A relevant Masters qualification, which includes either the Legal Practice Course or the Bar Vocational Course as recognised by the SRA and BSB respectively. (application)

- Qualification as either solicitor or barrister in England and Wales with professional experience of working in legal practice (Application)
- Flexible and innovative approach to teaching (Application/Interview).
- Ability to teach across a wide range of modules at both UG and PG levels. (Application/Interview)
- Ability to supervise dissertations up to Masters level (Application/Interview)
- Excellent presentation and communication skills (Application/Interview).
- Ability to work as part of a team and take on and accept responsibility (Application/Interview).
- Active member of relevant professional body as appropriate (Application/Interview)
- Excellent networking skills (Application/Interview).
- An understanding of and demonstrable commitment to the University's Values of Achieving Together, Being Proud, Creating Opportunity and Supporting All, as a framework for decisions, actions and behaviours (Application/Interview).

Knowledge, Skills, and Behaviours (Desirable)

- Experience of liaising with external organisations (Application/Interview).
- Course leadership experience in Law (Application/Interview).
- A PhD in a related area of study (Application).
- Professional teaching qualifications or membership of the HE Academy (Application).
- REF-able publications in the area of Law (Application/Interview).
- An ability to contribute to knowledge transfer activities (Application/Interview).
- An ability to contribute to the enhancement of the research culture within the School (Application/Interview).
- Supervision of postgraduate and research students (Application/Interview).
- A willingness to engage in international activity on behalf of the University (Application/Interview).