

Senior Lecturer in Advanced Practice - School of Health, Social Work and Sport - Grade I

Job Description

Purpose

The appointee will facilitate the teaching, learning and assessment of several modules/ courses within the discipline area of advanced practice. There will be alignment to continuing professional development via engagement with their own research, and allied knowledge transfer/income generation. It is expected that the post holder will play a significant role in the delivery of modules at postgraduate level, including via innovative distance/blended learning approaches. The post holder will contribute to the MSc Advanced Clinical Practice programme.

Duties

1. Lecturing at all levels of the academic programmes in the School including Masters programmes.
2. To engage in course developments in the area of Advanced Practice.
3. Make a major contribution to achieving the academic objectives of the Subject Group of Advanced Practice and the School through scholarly activity, research outputs and knowledge transfer activities.
4. As a Senior Lecturer, undertake significant administrative, course development and course leadership responsibilities. Act as a module tutor for a number of identified modules. Administer course registers, assessment records, learning programme and other records.
5. Engage with the recruitment of students onto courses and provide appropriate advice on progression and career opportunities.
6. Develop and consolidate contacts with relevant external organisations.
7. Adhere to quality assurance and enhancement systems to ensure high standards are maintained and student experience is enhanced.
8. Attend local and national events on behalf of the University, in order to promote the University and its courses, and to enhance the profile of the division, school and University as a whole.
9. With regards to the nature of your role and its impact upon our students, make an active contribution to and support the improvement of the student experience.
10. To undertake any duties relevant to the School's activities and commensurate with the level of the post, as directed by the Dean of School.

Person Specification

Knowledge, Skills, and Behaviours (Essential)

- Experience of teaching in Higher Education (Application/Interview).
- Course leadership experience in Advanced Practice including experience of developing teaching and learning resources. (Application/Interview).

- Recent clinical experience in the field of advanced practice
- MSc in Advanced Practice or equivalent (Application).
- Registered healthcare practitioner with HCPC/ NMC (Application).
- Professional teaching qualifications or membership of the HE Academy or willingness to undertake upon commencement (Application).
- Flexible and innovative approach to teaching (Application/Interview).
- Excellent presentation and communication skills (Application/Interview).
- Ability to work as part of a team and take on and accept responsibility (Application/Interview).
- Excellent networking skills (Application/Interview).
- An understanding of and demonstrable commitment to the University's Values of Achieving Together, Being Proud, Creating Opportunity and Supporting All, as a framework for decisions, actions and behaviours (Application/Interview).

Knowledge, Skills, and Behaviours (Desirable)

- Experience of liaising with external organisations (Application/Interview).
- Experience of innovative teaching practices including familiarity with blended learning approaches (Application/Interview).
- REF-able publications in the area of Advanced Practice (Application/Interview).
- An ability to contribute to knowledge transfer activities (Application/Interview).
- An ability to contribute to the enhancement of the research culture within the School (Application/Interview).
- Supervision of postgraduate and research students (Application/Interview).
- A willingness to engage in international activity on behalf of the University (Application/Interview).