

Senior Lecturer in Clinical Skills and Simulation – School of Medicine & Dentistry – Grade I

Job Description

Purpose

To contribute to, and lead in, the areas of course delivery, course management and course development in the area of clinical skills at the University, with a particular focus on simulation and life support. To undertake research and knowledge transfer through scholarly activities. To undertake specific course leader responsibilities in related programmes, as appropriate.

Duties

1. Lecturing in the clinical skills curriculum in Years 3, 4 and 5 of the MBBS course, with additional input into Years 1 and 2 of the MBBS program and other courses within the School of Medicine.
2. To engage in course developments within Clinical Skills.
3. Make a major contribution to achieving the academic objectives within clinical skills and the School of Medicine and Dentistry through scholarly activity, research outputs and knowledge transfer activities.
4. Take a key role in all aspects of preparation and delivery of the simulation and life support elements of the School's curriculum to meet the requirement and standards of the respective governing bodies.
5. Undertake significant administrative, course development and course leadership responsibilities. Supervise and support the module tutors for a number of identified modules. Administer course registers, assessment records, learning programme and other records.
6. Engage with the recruitment of students onto courses and provide appropriate advice on progression and career opportunities.
7. Develop and consolidate contacts with relevant external organisations.
8. Adhere to quality assurance and enhancement systems to ensure high standards are maintained and student experience is enhanced.
9. Attend local and national events on behalf of the University, to promote the University and its courses, and to enhance the profile of the division, school and University as a whole.
10. With regards to the nature of your role and its impact upon our students, make an active contribution to and support the improvement of the student experience.
11. To undertake any duties relevant to the School's activities and commensurate with the level of the post, as directed by the Dean/Associate Dean of School.

Person Specification

Knowledge, Skills, and Behaviours (Essential)

- Experience of teaching within Higher Education (Application/Interview).
- Experience of working within regulatory body requirements (Application/Interview).

- Significant experience of clinical skills teaching and assessment (Application/Interview).
- Evidence of clinical competence in specialty within the NHS (Application/Interview).
- Undergraduate degree (or equivalent) in a relevant subject area (Application).
- Professional teaching qualification or membership of the HE Academy (Application).
- Active registration with the Resuscitation Council UK at instructor level for Advanced Life Support (Application).
- Registered with a relevant UK healthcare professional body (Application).
- Flexible and innovative approach to teaching (Application/Interview).
- Excellent presentation and communication skills (Application/Interview).
- Excellent networking skills (Application/Interview).
- An understanding of and demonstrable commitment to the University's Values of Achieving Together, Being Proud, Creating Opportunity and Supporting All, as a framework for decisions, actions and behaviours (Application/Interview).

Knowledge, Skills, and Behaviours (Desirable)

- Experience of liaising with external organisations (Application/Interview).
- Experience of course leadership within clinical skills (Application/Interview).
- Experience of delivering and leading accredited life support courses in line with the Resuscitation Council UK (Application/Interview).
- A PhD in a related area of study (Application).
- REF-able publications in clinical skills (Application).
- An ability to contribute to knowledge transfer activities (Application/Interview).
- An ability to contribute to the enhancement of the research culture within the School (Application/Interview).
- Supervision of postgraduate and research students (Application/Interview).
- A willingness to engage in international activity on behalf of the University (Application/Interview).